

Nuclear Medicine MIBG Study:

Name: _____

Injection Date: _____

Check In Time: _____

Scan #1 Date: _____

Check In Time: _____

Scan #2 Date: _____

Check In Time: _____

Scan #3 Date: _____

Check In Time: _____

2 Days Before MIBG Injection	1 Day Before MIBG Injection	Day of MIBG Injection	Days of Each Scan
 Your physician will prescribe the medication, potassium iodide Solution. This will protect your thyroid gland. Fill your prescription at the local pharmacy.  Take all medications as prescribed by your physician  If you are breast-feeding, please call Nuclear Medicine at (206) 223-6951 for additional instructions	 Take first dose of Potassium Iodide solution as directed  Take all medications as prescribed by your physician  Hydrate - drink cold beverages throughout the day  Eat meals unless you have another test that has dietary restrictions	 Take second dose of Potassium Iodide solution as directed  Take all medications as prescribed by your physician  Hydrate - drink cold beverages throughout the day  Eat meals unless you have another test that has dietary restrictions  Female patients, who might be pregnant, e.g. last menstrual cycle greater than 28 days, will require a pregnancy test	 You will take pictures on three separate days  Wear loose comfortable clothing free from metal objects  Continue to take each morning for another five (5) days, the Potassium Iodide Solution  Hydrate - drink cold beverages throughout the day  Eat meals unless you have another test that has dietary restrictions